CORRESPONDENCE

Editor Review-Advertiser.

Dear Sir:—The Chairman of the Light Committee (whatever that gentleman may be) is something of a humorist, in starting up his (humorous) this week in correspondence, saying that I will not find any information from the local newspaper, and straightaway starts giving the information asked for. Poor old boy, I did not realize I was kicking so hard, you sure have made some fine squeal—and in the local newspaper too.

So early in the spring the boiler No. 2 was condemned and a gas engine ordered to be delivered on Aug. 1st, 1916. Now, Mr. Editor, if the Chairman of the Light Committee and the gentleman associated with him had been spending that much money of their own, instead of the taxpayer's, would they not of have had a class put in the agreement that if the engine did not arrive on time, the company supplying the same should supply any loss of revenue caused by doing so. For, according to the chairman's own statement, and he I believe is correct, this town is losing ten and a half dollars a day—in fuel and wages—which has been going on since August and will continue until another five weeks, besides which, there is the loss of revenue from the local plant.

I also notice what is said about No. 1, and I believe that some trouble could have been avoided if the council had taken the advice of the chairman of the Light Committee, the necessary work done early in the year instead of waiting until the dark days are upon us. I don't know if Mr. Quizy will admit that Sunday is the most suitable day for the majority of the ratepayers to go without light. I suppose quite a number of the light users go to church on Sunday nights, and they need the light there as much as at any other time, for Mr. Editor, I am one of those people who believe that there is nothing of greater importance, than the saving of money.

A half loaf may be better than no loaf, but if the ratepayers are paying for a full loaf they have the right to get it. I wonder who besides the Chairman of the Light Committee would say that the light service has been good in the last year, that have gone by; certainly no one who had been a user of light in other cities would say so, and as for last year being the climax, well I would like to say, Mr. Editor, that the chairman of the light committee and the other gentlemen are sent (I was going to say elected) but that would hardly be true of the present council to the town council to avoid these kind of climates.

As for the great saving that it is to come—Well I must say it looks well on paper, but, as we have heard these stories before, and unfortunately the town's have many a knock of turning out to be geese (particularly municipal swans).

And now we come to the dog in the manager policy—I still repeat that this is the policy of the council—Quizy is to now come to Claresholm, and the chairman of the light committee knows as well as the rest of us, that the ratepayers never had a chance to vote on the question of gas for lighting, but only for fuel. I don't think that the people of the town would have voted for the present light plant had they known they were only to have a partial service. Who rescinded the law, the people or the council? I believe the statement of the chairman about the people voting on the question of gas lighting is misleading.

As for the other unsatisfactory state of affairs, these are not seen from Mr. Quizy's standpoint alone, but if it becomes necessary, Mr. Quizy will air some of them.

All council meetings may be public, but when are they held? And if the council are so anxious for the public to attend, why do they shut up like oysters when certain ratepayers have gone in the room?

Why do they advertise the council meetings? And if the council really wish the public to be present at its deliberations I would suggest something like this: In view of the high cost of living the council will meet on a certain date to discuss the advisability of raising some of the town's rates, commencing with those who receive the lowest pay.

I don't think the chairman or any of the other gentlemen would have to complain of poor attendance if they chose something like this.

That the title of chairman of the Light Committee is almost like a name de plume and that people who live in glass houses, etc. I certainly do not know who the gentleman is and I expect there are a number of other people who are quite as dense as Yours truly "QUIZZY".

I.O.O.F. Organized in Claresholm

The ladies in Claresholm and district will be interested to learn that a chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire has been formed in Claresholm.

All British subjects are eligible for membership, and those ladies who feel any inclination to join the chapter are earnestly requested to communicate with any of the members or with the secretary, Mr. J. H. Watt, so that they can be enrolled at once.

The chapter was inaugurated at a meeting held in the Parish Hall, on Tuesday, Nov. 7th. Mrs. James McKinney was in the chair, and in a few well chosen words she introduced the speaker, Mrs. W. D. Spence, Hon. Organizing Secretary of the I.O.D.E. for Southern Alberta.

Mrs. Spence gave a most able and inspiring address in which she pointed out to the ladies present the pressing need for work of all kinds in connection with the life and death struggle taking place in Flanders—work which could only be done by women of the Empire.

She told of the crying need for Belgian Relief, for Serbian Relief, Prisoners of War Fund, and so eloquent was her appeal that all the ladies present signed the charter, and straightaway formed what we sincerely hope will be a flourishing new chapter.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. B. F. Steves, Regent; Mrs. O. H. Heinicke, 1st Vice Regent; Mrs. E. W. Elliott, 2nd Vice Regent; Mrs. J. H. Watt, Secretary; Mrs. Hooper, Assist. Secretary; Mrs. W. J. Stephen, Treasurer; Mrs. C. F. A. Leeds, Recording Secretary.

is wearing and dangerous because the inflamed, mucus-filled tubes interfere with breathing and the fresh air passes through that unhealthy tissue.

German Under British Treatment

Are the German soldiers down-brained when they fall into the hands of the British as prisoners? How do they fare after they have spent some days under the administration of the cook, the guard, and the camp system? Perhaps the opinion of a typical British Tommy on these questions would be interesting. "Today I was watching a batch of prisoners taken with their guards. There can be no manner of question as to their contentment with their present lot. There has been no suggestion of a complaint from any one of this lot, and when I was there some of them were laughing and romping like schoolboys. It is in the nature of the thing in these men after a few days of rest and good food the miserable, pain-stricken figures that they are at the time of their surrender."

GUARD THE CHILDREN FROM AUTUMN COLDS

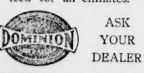

The fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—no day is warm, the next is wet and cold—and unless the mother is on her guard the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mother's best friend in preventing colds in children. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose will prevent colds or if it does come on, it will be mild. The Tablets are sold by medicine men, or you may mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"A flippant answer," said Senator Williams, apropos of a war argument. "That answer is in flippancy," he continued, "because it is the coquette to whom a young man, driven to desperation, says:—
"If you don't answer me one way or the other," said the coquette, "you mustn't do that. Father does not like the young men hanging about."

The Prosperity of Southern Alberta

Phenomenal Yields of Grain Strengthen Confidence in the Country

The following editorial from The Morning Alberta, of Calgary, is reprinted without comment. It tells its own story:

The statements that Southern Alberta can honestly make respecting the results of its grain harvest are printed without comment. It tells its own story. Right here, in the fertile district of Southern Alberta, where the grain is so abundant, it is being claimed in all truth that no more abundant harvest has been secured in any other part of the world. The fact is, every farmer in the southern country has achieved a splendid result, and the average production of the country is a record. Salt as a Healer

Medical Men Now Recognize the Physiological Importance of Salt

The preservative, the cleansing and the soothing effects of salt have been known for ages. To this extent and with some recognition of existing practice, the use of saline solutions in British military hospitals is not new, says the New York World.

The interesting points are in the evolution of salt to the position of a sole leading agent, and in the method of application by a constant stream of saline in a single flowing washes the wounds, guards it from infection and contrains healing power.

An ancient and common household remedy, this salt solution, after a long and tedious process of scientific dissection, the highly scientific antiseptic appliance of the day.

This elaboration of an old remedy recalls to mind the medical art which flourished in 1860, as published from the University of Chicago, by Dr. Jacques Loeb and Prof. D. J. Lingle, of the theory that a solution of common salt in the blood, neutralized by the action of the new propellant solution, was the cause of the rhythmic beating of the heart. All doctors had known of saline irrigation, but this stimulates the heart. Those who hesitated over the new proposition, we omitted the physiological importance of salt, to supply the deficiency in circulation until new blood is made.

Two Scottish soldiers on their way to France passed through London recently. It was their first experience of the "big village," and they were naturally keeping their eyes open.

Their watchfulness was, however, sharp enough to give a taxi in the vicinity of Victoria Station, to one of them got knocked over.

As he picked himself up, he noted the face of his fall, his male growled: "Mebbe ye'll believe it's no, none the Kirkistulloch noo."—Tit-Bits

Sending Relief Supplies

Turkey Now Admits Starvation of Syrians

The solicitation of the English and French ambassadors at Washington, supported by many citizens of the United States, for the transmission of relief supplies to the starving thousands of Syrians, has at length prevailed. Even Fash, it is said, did not object, and that it did, the Government of the Sultan would adopt its own measures of relief. Events showed that the measures drawn up by the Government consisted of the usual order to "massacre."

The facts established, the Washington Minister at Constantinople adopted a firm attitude on the question, and now, after thousands of lives have been starved to death, the military authorities at Beirut have agreed to permit food and drugs to be sent under the arms of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies.

The B. C. sockeye pack is 1,000 cases, as compared with 47,000 cases last year, revealing a condition that does not make the packers optimistic. It is said to be a bad year, and this was due to the fact that weather conditions through the whole season were wet and cold, causing fish to swim low in the water and thus escape the nets.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Last week, the Calgary Standard and other papers, came out with the following announcement:

The consolidation of all the larger farmer organizations of Western Canada has just been completed. By this move over 100,000 farmers have become members of one organization. The agricultural bodies concerned in the consolidation are the Grain Growers' Grain Company, of Manitoba, the Alberta Farmers' Cooperative Elevator Company, the Grain Elevators' Grain Company, of Saskatchewan, the United Farmers of Alberta, the Farmers' Elevator of Saskatchewan, and all affiliated bodies.

This announcement has been given considerable publicity in some of our western papers, and yet much as we might wish it was correct, is far from the truth. The organization is not yet complete, and is not likely to be for some time to come. A resolution will come before the annual meeting of the Grain Growers' Grain Co. in favor of a consolidation of the Alberta Farmers' Cooperative Elevator Company with the Grain Growers' Grain Co. The Grain Growers' Grain Company of Saskatchewan appears to have intentions at the present time of entering into a similar arrangement with the other grain companies, and our own company has certain obligations to the government which will have to be settled before such a happy union can be consummated. However, it is somewhat to be expected. When the farmers have a company big enough and financially strong enough to control the grain mill it reaches Liverpool, only then will they get the full value of their grain.

The annual meeting of the Grain Growers' Grain Company is called to meet in Winnipeg, Nov. 20th. Some very important questions will be up for discussion. There are a large number of shareholders living in this district, and it is almost time that their seats representative to the annual meeting. Why not call a meeting and send some one this year?

Our minds have been so completely taken up with thoughts of the war that we have given little attention to the movements that make for peace. Strange as it may seem on Aug. 1, 1914, some 90 representatives of the churches of the different nations met in Göttingen, Germany, for the purpose of perfecting a world organization of churches which should strive to substitute friendship for hatred among nations, and judicial processes for war. On the same day the movement for disarmament, and the movement for disarmament began. The question now is which will be the process of the ages. The meeting at Göttingen had to be abandoned owing to the government needing the rail yards for military purposes. It was adjourned, and a few days later met in London when the organization was perfected. The world alliance has now members in nearly all the countries of the world. It is the intention of the alliance to call a world conference of the churches to meet immediately at the close of the war to consider how the churches may help to establish a new international order, and to assist that the nations of the world act toward each other in accordance with those principles of mutual justice and fairness, which regulate the relations of good men everywhere. A conference such as is suggested, would attract the attention of the world, and would exert a powerful influence in the conference of the nations when they meet to arrange terms of peace.

President Wilson, in his speech before the league to enforce peace, declared in May 2nd last, that "We have nothing material of any kind to ask for ourselves, and are quite aware that we are in no sense of degree parties to the present quarrel. Our interest is only in peace and in its future guarantees." This explains President Wilson's attitude throughout the present war. The loss of American lives, the wholesale murder of women and children evidently have no weight with the representative of the United States. We venture to believe that future generations in the United States will be ashamed that their nation took no part in this great struggle for justice and right.

Musical Competition

The musical competition between the pupils of Mr. W. G. Moffatt which was held last Tuesday proved a great attraction. The school hall was crowded to the utmost, and a large number were unable to find seats. The pupils all acquitted themselves splendidly, reflecting great credit on their teacher. The prize was awarded by Mrs. B. F. Stevens, and the judges gave general satisfaction. The following is the list of prize winners:

Increased Deposit Deposits Under Prohibition

There is a very distinct connection between prohibition and the increase of $30,000,000 in Spokane bank deposits, for the period from September 1, 1915, to September 1, 1916, according to M. B. Connelly, president of the Washington Trust company and also of the Spokane Clearing House Association.

"The Clearing House is only concerned with totals," says Mr. Connelly as quoted in the Spokane (Wash.) Chronicle, "that the fact that over $30,000,000 is on deposit in Spokane banks indicates that there has been a marked increase in the number of depositors. Our own institution shows an increased number of patrons, and I am sure that the condition is true of all the other banks as quoted in the Spokane (Wash.) WHAT VICTORY THE BALKANS WILL MEAN TO EUROPE

SMALL NATIONS TO SECURE MORE TERRITORY

Should Succeed Crown the Efforts of the Allies in their Operations.
Serbia, Italy, Rumania, and Russia will Acquire much Valuable Territory from the Enemy

Should the armies of the Allies, now operating between the Italian frontiers and Greece, be successful in their aims, 10,000 square miles will eventually be subtracted from Austria-Hungary, the territory, situated before the war a population of 17,000,000, or just one-third of the total population of the Dual Monarchy. The geographical divisions by which these parcels of Austrian and Hungarian property are known are as follows:

The Tyrol (the southern half), the South Tyrol (the northern half), the Trentino (the southern half), the Trieste (the northern half), the Istria (the southern half), the Dalmatian coast (the northern half), the Slavonia (the southern half), the Croatia (the northern half), the Bosnia (the southern half), the Herzegovina and a portion of Slavonia, will fall to Serbia. Transylvania, Bukovina and the Banat of Serbia will go to Rumania. Galicia will become Russian.

Italy will take some 13,000 square miles, having a population less than 10,000,000. Of this population less than 500,000 are Italian. The rest of the population is Slav, Serb in Dalmatia and the islands. South of Trieste.

Rumania will receive 30,000 square miles, having a population of 10,000,000. Of this population a little more than 2,500,000 are Rumanian. The rest of the population is Magyar, 7,000,000 German, 5,000,000 Slav, 1,000,000 Rumanian in Bukovina.

Russia will get 70,000 square miles, having an area of just over 4,000,000 square miles and a population of slightly more than 8,000,000. The rest of this population, save for the few Jews, is Slav, 5,000,000 Slav, 1,000,000 of the farthest bits of the Alps, some of the best known centers of tourism will fall to Italy's share.

In addition, in taking Trieste and the coastland down to the Gulf of the Adriatic peninsula, she will get the most modern city in the Balkans, the first commercial ports of the Mediterranean basin, and the most important naval station of Austria. Along the Dalmatian coast she will acquire the most splendid harbor in the Balkans, the city of Zara, Spalato, Sebenico, and the coastland of the Adriatic will be added to her empire. The islands of the Adriatic will fall to her, the islands of the Adriatic will be added to her empire. The islands of the Adriatic will be added to her empire.

Proportionately, Serbia's gains will be the most. Bosnia, Dalmatia, Slavonia, Croatia, and Herzegovina will fall to her share, the portion of Slavonia, materially more than that of the other Balkan states. Acquiring them, Serbia will at last gain her window on the sea. Through Austrian interference, after her Balkan victories, but Serbia

Germany's Sea "Victory" Is Now Explored

Official of German Torpedo Boat Throws Light on a Dark Subject

The world has had an opportunity of reading Admiral Jellicoe's report of the Battle of Jutland. But not one word of the report of Vice-Admiral von Holtz, chief of the German High Sea Fleet, has been allowed to the public. We call this a "dark subject," because the reason, of course, that report will not square with the Kaiser's hands-off policy to effect the German's secured a victory which was not destroyed by the power of the British navy. But Germany has just been placed in possession of a semi-official account of the battle, from the German point of view. This account, which was written by an officer of the German torpedo boat T-47, and is published under German admiralty auspices, breaks the news gently to the German people that the "victory" was not such a wonderful victory.

The narrative contains a somewhat non-committal account of how Vice-Admiral von Holtz, in the morning of his flagship in the middle of an engagement, was shot down by the British. DEVELOPMENT OF THE AERIAL LAKE ONE OF THE WONDERS OF THE WAR

AERIAL NAVIGATION IN THE COMMERCIAL WORLD

At the Close of The War There Will Be No Longer Any Doubt But that the Skilled Aviators Developed by the War Will Utilize Aeroplanes in More Peaceful Pursuits

No more thrilling page in the romance of war has yet been written than that which records the mastery of the air by heavier-than-air machines. The story told in The Globe by Frederick Palmer smacks of the tales of Jules Verne and H. G. Wells, when as yet man was limited in his means of locomotion to the surface of the earth and the surface of the sea. Ten years ago aviation was in its infancy, flying at an altitude of 10,000 feet, and capable of carrying heavy loads in addition to the pilot and observer. It was a clumsy, lumbering machine, and its speed was not more than 100 miles an hour. It was a machine that was not yet found its way into the standard dictionaries and encyclopedias.

Practical men shook their heads and dismissed the idea of aerial flight as a dream. It was a machine that was not yet found its way into the standard dictionaries and encyclopedias. Mustn't Waste Good Shells The Air Passage

Of the Channel

Throughout the big naval battle off the coast of Jutland, the crew of a British super-dreadnought had remained at his post, unperturbed, facing his orders briefly and bravely, no commander in chief had ordered that the gunnery officers should be kept in the line, and the crew of the ship, who were in danger of being torpedoed or sunk, occasionally the virtue of the economy.

That was all. The officer under command, the captain was right. It was unnecessary to waste shells when smaller caliber would have done the purpose. The ship was in danger of being torpedoed or sunk, occasionally the virtue of the economy.

That is the spirit of the British navy.

Getting the Submarines Policy of Mystery Is Terrifying to the Germans

The policy of mystery which the British have adopted of making, sinking or capturing a submarine, and then making nothing about it, in order to avoid the "mystery" of the disappearance of the vessel, has been a source of great anxiety to the Germans. The Germans are anxious to know the whereabouts of their submarines, and the British policy of mystery is a source of great anxiety to them.

The Best Car Going

It is just a simple proposition—why should you pay more than the Maxwell price for a car that cannot offer you more advantages? Does it sound like good judgment? Every single feature that gives convenience and actual service is embodied in the Maxwell. You can't have a car that will give you better service—greater economy—more downright satisfaction. You may have had rattle—mud, sand or hills—you may want low upkeep—expense—the Maxwell will answer your requirements perfectly. The Maxwell is light in weight, extremely powerful, in fact, just right to go easily over the roads, good or bad.

It's a car you have absolute confidence in. When you have driven a Maxwell a few weeks you realize just what it will do. You get a new idea of motor car service.

The Maxwell is all the car you want if you can't buy more—that's why it is the sensible car. That's why it is the extravagant for the ordinary buyer to pay more!

The Willow Creek Farm Women's Club and a few intimate friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Heyland, on Tuesday evening, and tendered their sister, Miss Cornell, a variety shower. Although taken by surprise she thanked the donors in a few well chosen words, and expressed her regret at leaving Sunny Alberta.

The evening was spent in music and games, and last but not least a lunch of cake and coffee was served.

Miss Cornell during her life here has been an active member of the club, and a willing worker for the Red Cross. She leaves on Thursday evening for New York where the happy event takes place and where she will in the future reside.

CANADA'S GREATEST

Motor Car Value

The Gray-Dort for 1917 offers you more, dollar for dollar, than has ever been offered you in the past. The Gray Dort is low priced, but it offers you all you can ask of any car. POWER to take you anywhere and will leave a reserve. SPEED—far more than you will ever dare use. RELIABILITY—the great Gray Dort feature. When you start for anywhere in a Gray Dort you will get there, in comfort, on time, without trouble. COMFORT—real motor comfort, comfort in long rides over rough roads. BEAUTY—no other car under twice the price is so admired, the curved—a car to be proud of. The Gasoline and Oil consumption is unusually low. The life of the tires is long. Repair cost is at a minimum. The 1917 model is complete in every detail—a real pleasure of the wonderful 1915 Gray-Dort.

A carload of Gray-Dort Cars will be unloaded in Claresholm in a few days. Most of them are already sold. Put in your orders and snap the remainders.
